LEFT THE ACTORS IN THE LURGE.

A theatrical troupe wrecks a "Davy Crockett" Company.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

PITTSBURG, June 4.—Frank H. Bennett, ex Frank Asher, of New York, was treasurer of the "Young F. May-Jay" Cricket Theatrical Combination, which closed its season here last night. He has disappeared.

Mr. May says almost wrecked the company. The latter had not been playing very good luck lately, but managed to keep together even when the wolves howled in front of the house worse than they did on the stage. Bennett, it is claimed, appropriated the company's money to his own use.

Some of the members were paid only half their salaries, the treasurer, it is alleged, borrowing the other half. The se of the members to get away from the city last night. The others will have to wait until they raise sufficient funds. Warrants for embezzlement have been sworn out against Bennett.

REFUGEE TO THE WOMEN.

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 4.—Gov. Penruett, the new Democratic Executive, has called for the resignation of every Republican territorial official. The removal of these offices will be followed by an investigation, which it is believed will reveal much rotteness.

MARRIES THE TAILOR-MADE GIRL.

The notice which appeared in several of the morning papers yesterday stating that Elizabeth Marie Griffin (Nina Lawrence) had been married to Ernest Almonter Foster in the Church of the Transfiguration, by the Rev. Mr. Houghton, on Saturday, was taken about considerably in the Tenderloin District yesterday.

In a letter from Yokohama, dated May 10, to the London Times, this writer occurs:

"I am a Southerner. At one time I played the tailor-made girl in Forty 'Hoos in the Ground' company, but as an actress she did not make much of a hit.

Foster is said to be a member of the Fair Rebel company. He is an Englishman.
